

Talk to a health care provider to determine if you're fully protected against measles before travelling.